

Evelyn R. Greene Chicago Regional Office

Director of Advancement & Engagement
American Jewish Committee
Chicago, IL

American Jewish Committee (AJC) seeks a highly motivated, entrepreneurial, and seasoned fundraising professional to serve as the next Director of Advancement & Engagement in its Chicago Office.

AJC Chicago contributes to AJC's global advocacy program through engagement with diplomats, elected officials, interfaith leaders, and others whom we work with regionally to advance AJC's priorities.

The Director must be a strategic thinker and genuine relationship-builder who is energized by AJC's mission and is able to communicate that commitment to an increasingly broad and diverse audience. They are a smart, entrepreneurial, high-energy initiator who combines organizational acumen, good judgement, and professionalism with knowledge of the Chicago Region and Chicago Jewish community as well as the larger philanthropic and corporate communities. A strong manager who is a consummate team player with a curious, informed, and compassionate mindset is essential for success in this role.

The Director of Advancement & Engagement will be a valued thought partner to the AJC Chicago Regional Director and collaborate on strategy and execution of goals to advance annual and long-term philanthropic goals. The incumbent will drive and expand the Chicago region's $2.8M campaign, elevate planned giving, and develop a healthy major gift pipeline.

The salary range for this position is $100,000-$120,000.

AJC is an equal opportunity employer. AJC celebrates diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees. Furthermore, it does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, retaliation, parental status, military service, or other non-merit factor.
