

Certificate in Jewish Leadership for Educators

Presented by Spertus Institute in partnership with Northwestern University

Gain knowledge and expertise that are relevant, applicable,
and meaningful

Enrich yourself both personally and professionally

For senior-level
Jewish educators

As a participant, you will master how to:

- Identify your own leadership style and build on your unique aptitudes
- Manage challenge and change from a position of strength
- Better communicate, collaborate, and connect with colleagues—both within and outside your organization
- Identify opportunities and galvanize your team, even in tough times

Spertus Institute for Jewish Learning and Leadership

Spertus is a partner with the Jewish United Fund in serving our community.

Northwestern

SCHOOL OF
PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Learn. Lead. Inspire.

Photo by Jeremy Lawson

Learn with a cohort of colleagues from Jewish communities across North America, in a program designed to work with your schedule.

Program format

Instruction takes place via a unique hybrid of online classes combined with an in-person seminar at Spertus Institute's innovative downtown Chicago campus.

Begins February 22, 2022

You will

- Complete your certificate in approximately three months
- Learn from senior Northwestern University and Spertus Institute faculty in a welcoming, pluralistic environment
- Receive personalized leadership assessment and professional coaching
- Learn with a cohort of like-minded educational leaders affiliated with Jewish organizations across North America
- Enjoy a networking-building, interactive learning experience

Program Cost

Due to generous support from The Harriette and Ted Perlman Family Foundation, the cost of the program is only $1,250, not including travel or accommodations.

My coach was a source of help, guidance, and inspiration. I found myself looking at my leadership abilities with new perspective.

Barbara Glickman | Education Director
Ohev Shalom of Bucks County, Pennsylvania

Certificate in Jewish Leadership for Educators

Program Components

Synchronous online classes plus one four-day onsite seminar

Three individual sessions with a professional coach

Leadership assessment

Applied capstone

Models of Jewish Leadership

Communications for Leaders

Leading People Through Change

Collaboration and Power Sharing

Leadership Assessment and Professional Coaching

spertus.edu/educators

Clockwise from top left: Justin Sakofs, Abby Mars, Susan Siegel, Avi Finegold, Lori Sagarin, Franny Silverman.

Enhance your educational leadership

The Certificate in Jewish Leadership for Educators is a selective admissions program.

Because Jewish education happens both in and out of the classroom, we encourage educators from both traditional and nontraditional/informal settings to apply.

Find out if this program is right for you.

Contact

Amie S. Barrish
Assistant Director for Recruitment abarrish@spertus.edu or 312.322.1707.

The Certificate in Jewish Leadership for Educators is a program of Spertus Institute's Center for Jewish Leadership, supported in part by a generous grant from the Crown Family. Spertus Institute is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, Chicago, IL 60604.

This was one of the most valuable programs I've ever experienced. It provides participants with skills and tools for leadership, training that most educators do not receive as part of their studies or on-the-job experience. The program has empowered me to be a better leader.

Lynne Lieberman | Senior Director
Lorraine & Jack N. Friedman
Commission for Jewish Education,
West Palm Beach, Florida