MA in Jewish Professional Studies

Graduate school opportunity for professionals working or seeking to work in the Jewish nonprofit sector.

Fellowships available to cover 60% of costs for qualified students.

Spertus Institute’s Master of Arts in Jewish Professional Studies (MAJPS) is a world-class educational opportunity exclusively for professionals working in the Jewish community and those seeking to transition into careers in the Jewish nonprofit sector. The MAJPS is offered in small-group cohorts (12–18 students), providing a network of fellow professionals with whom to connect, learn, and grow.

Courses are taught by creative, experienced, engaging faculty who bridge theory and practice. MAJPS is delivered through seminars, online learning, professional mentorship, and a personalized capstone project. Coursework has immediate application, with projects designed so students can use their own institutions as learning laboratories.
